

General Conditions

The competition is open to primary and secondary school teaching staff in UK schools providing Spanish as a foreign language.

Entries should consist of ideas to develop school projects and activities aimed at widening the understanding of the history, geography and cultural legacy of the 'Camino de Santiago'.

Primary and secondary proposals must be submitted separately.

All proposals presented will be judged on their innovation, feasibility and impact. No record of projects having been carried out will be required, but they should mention relevant details such as targeted age group, staff involvement, estimated budget, time requirements, and wider community participation.

The closing date is the 31st of March. The winner will be announced on the 11th of April.

By entering this competition, entrants agree to be bound by these rules. In the event of any dispute regarding the rules and all other matters relating to the competition, the decision of the organizers shall be final and no correspondence or discussion shall be entered into.

Name, postal address of school, email addresses and contact details must be provided to enter this competition.

We reserve the right to cancel this competition at anytime should we deem it necessary, and if circumstances arise outside of our control.

The decisions of the judges are final and their deliberations confidential.

Prizes

Schools submitting a proposal will receive a set of reading material.

The teacher presenting the winning project will be awarded a trip to Galicia for two people, including flights and accommodation for either

- * A 7 day walking trip on the 'Camino de Santiago Inglés' (110 kms approx.)
- * Or; A 4 night stay to visit the cities of La Coruña and Santiago de Compostela

The trip can be taken at any time in 2012, with the exception of the Easter and Christmas holidays and is subject to availability.

Aims

The pilgrims' way to the tomb of Saint James the eldest, known as 'El Camino de Santiago' became the channel for cultural exchange throughout Europe in the Middle Ages and continues to be a relevant route for the exchange of modern values.

The competition organizers aim at promoting 'El Camino de Santiago' in any of its facets:

- Cultural, artistic, historical.
- Spirituality, religion, ethics, recalling values upon which the European civilization has been built.
- Personal challenges and achievements that inspire our modern way of life.
- Galicia and its people, other cultures and their historic links.
- Spanish on the first route of cultural interest nominated by the Council of Europe.

Information

Further information is available from the web pages of:

TURESPAÑA

CONSEJERIA DE EDUCACION

TURGALICIA

XACOBEO

CONFRATERNITY OF ST.JAMES

And from the Spanish Tourist Office in London

e-mail: info.londres@tourspain.es

Tel 0207 486877